

WALK YOUR GRIT

Work Your Dreams

POETRY SLAM ART EXHIBITION

What is GRIT? Students explore the meaning of this word through poetry, artwork, and song. Mrs. Smart, Ms. Rudnick, Mrs. Garza and Mr. Espain's students will present their artwork and poetry in spoken word performances the evening of November 20th along with music performed by Mr. Green's Guitar Club

A flyer will be available to staff wanting to perform SPOKEN WORD at open mike that evening. We are also looking for musicians to open the and close the evening. Contact vicki_smart@kernhigh.org.

You're invited to the 2nd annual

ART EXHIBIT

POETRY EVENT

SLAM

Guitar and spoken performances

Poetry inspired art exhibition

Photography

BAKERSFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

1241 G Street
Spindt Hall
Art Gallery and Library

Wednesday,
November 20th
5:30 – 7:00 pm

CALENDAR of EVENTS

October 21, 2019 Information disseminated to teacher.

- Please let me know by October 25th if you will be participating

October 28, 2019 You should be introducing this to your students by now....

- Please have students write their WORD document using Arial , 12 point, centered

November 8, 2019 I will be hanging art student work in the north gallery

November 11, 2019 Poetry should be sent to me for matting.

- If both Mr. Espain and Mrs. Garza participate I have nice mats for your top 15 each.
- These will be displayed with the artwork. Mrs. Garza may still have white mats from last year to use in on the tables. (let me know Amanda)
- Names of students who will be performing November 20th need to be included so that I can create the program. This includes Mr. Green's Guitar Club
- If there is something I haven't answered let me know.